Rentzes to be honored

John and David Rentz are planning a reception in honor of the 25th anniversary of their parents, Richard and Evelyn Rentz from 2 to 5 p.m. Sunday in the afternoon at First United Church of Christ, 115 W. Fifth St., Greenville.

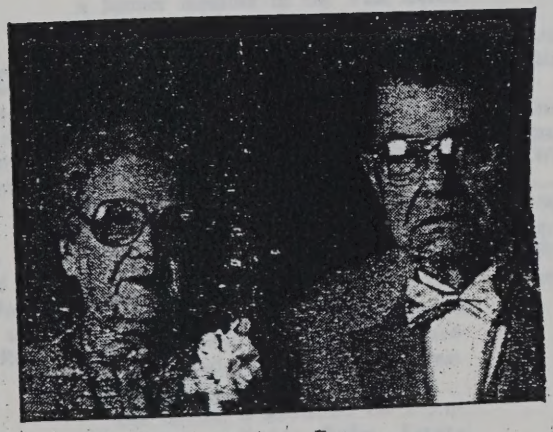
Richard and Evelyn (Mendenhall) Rentz were married June 19, 1960, at the Methodist Church in Cambridge City, Ind. They now reside at 1176 Donald Drive, Greenville.

Rentz is an instructor at Edison State Community College, Piqua, and his wife teaches first grade at East Elementary School, Greenville.

All are invited to the reception. The couple request that gifts be omitted.

Evelyn, Richard Rentz

Open house nears



The Rome Lantzes

Mr. and Mrs. M. J. (Rome) Lantz of 116 W. Water St. will celebrate their 60th wedding anniversary Sunday, June 23.

Mr. and Mrs. Lantz were married on June 20, 1925.

They are the parents of seven children: Mrs. W. L. (Jean) Shepherd, Mrs. M. C. (Mary Ann) Caldwell, both of Greenville; Mrs. Jack (Paula) Weitz, Celina; Lowell, Miamisburg; John, Centerville; and David and Steven, both of Houston, Texas.

There will be an open house at the home of the daughter, Mrs. Caldwell, at 614 Chestnut on June 23 from 4 to 5 p.m. It is requested that gifts be omitted.

Daughter born

Mr. and Mrs. Tony (Irene) Wirrig of 4471 Phares St., Greenville, announce the birth of their daughter, Amie Kathleen, born at 2:25 p.m. Jan. 24 at Miami Valley Hospital, Dayton.

The infant weighed 8 pounds, 13½ ounces and was 21¾ inches long at birth.

Maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Willard Floyd of Greenville, and paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Slyder of Ansonia and Herman Wirrig of Greenville. Great-grandparents are Irene Gauvey, Willard Floyd and Euturpy Thomas of Greenville and Leah Slyder of Ansonia.

Echo J. Anderson

Echo Jane Anderson, 80, formerly of 527 Sweitzer St., Greenville, died at 6:30 p.m. Monday at Wayne Hospital, where she had been a patient since Saturday. She had been in failing health for two years.

Mrs. Anderson was born June 14, 1905, in Darke County, daughter of the late William and Orpha (Baker) Fourman. A homemaker, she was also preceded in death by her husband, Roy, in 1950, and a sister, Ellen Baker.

She was a member of Pleasant View Missionary Church and was a former 4-H adviser for the Rural Ramblers and a former member of the Van Buren Vestas Homemakers Club.

Survivors include two sons, Ray of Greenville and Robert of Arcanum; four daughters, Mrs. Donald (Clara) Fourman and Mrs. Berlin (Lou) Besecker, both of Arcanum, Mrs. Ira (Mary) Hicks of Bradford and Mrs. Raymond (Alyce) Orth of Greenville; three brothers, Paul and Emerson Fourman of Arcanum and Jesse Fourman of New Madison; five sisters, Viola Baker of Arcanum, Blanche Netzley and Mary Brown, both of West Milton, Annabelle Bailey of Dayton and Mearl Bolinger of Greenville; 17 grandchildren; and 14 great-grandchildren.

The funeral is scheduled for 2 p.m. Thursday at Zechar Bailey Funeral Home, Greenville, with the Rev. Jesse Seeker officiating. Burial will follow in Abbottsville Cemetery.

Friends may call from 2 to 4 and 7 to 9 p.m. Wednesday at the funeral home. Memorial contributions may be made to the Greenville Area Emergency Rescue Service.

Anniversaries

Open house on Sunday

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Boyd Sr. of 3357 Weaver-Fort Jefferson Road, Greenville, will celebrate their 40th wedding anniversary Sunday with an open house from 2 to 4 p.m. in the Antler Room of the Elks Lodge in Greenville.

Robert, Peg Boyd

The Boyds were married in Liberty, Ind., in 1947.

Mrs. Boyd, a Fairlawn Steakhouse employee, is the former Margaret Mendenhall. She is the daughter of the late Russell and Gladys Mendenhall.

Her husband is a self-employed carpenter. His parents are the late John and Lucille Boyd.

They are the parents of three children — Robert Jr. of Arcanum, Mrs. Steve (Gloria) Bohn of New Madison and Mrs. Dwight (Debbie) Warner of Arcanum. There are 10 grandchildren — Robert III, Paul and Bridget Boyd, Chad, Alicia and April Warner, all of Arcanum; and Christi, Stephanie, David and Sarah Bohn of New Madison.

Relatives, friends and neighbors are invited to share in this celebration. The Boyds would enjoy hearing from those who are unable to attend. They ask that all gifts be omitted.

Addises celebrate 25th anniversary

A celebration in honor of the 25th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Larry (Shirley Reeser) Addis will be hosted by their children on July 12.

The Addises were married June 30, 1962, in Versailles.

They are the parents of three children — Mrs. Mike (Sherry) Baker, Larry Jr. and Jennifer, all of Greenville. There is also one grandson, Caleb Michael Baker.

Shirley, Larry Addis

Ansonia and started the above business, which he has since followed. He was married to Mary A. Dill May 6, 1859; she was born in Butler Co., Ohio, Sept. 25, 1837; they were the parents of three children, of whom two now survive—Martha L. and Cora M. Mrs. Hunter's father was John H. C. Dill, who was born in Germany March 16, 1805, and emigrated to America when quite young. He married Martha C. Liegment Nov. 17, 1834; she was born in Germany Oct. 23, 1815, and died March 7, 1858. Mr. Dill died April 2, 1865.

WM. B. MENDENHALL, retired tanner, merchant and farmer, Sec. 32; P. O. Woodington; born in Preble Co. June 22, 1820; he learned and worked at the tanner's trade until 20 years of age, when he came to Darke Co., in 1840, and located upon Sec. 32, Brown Township, where he purchased 4 acres of land for $20, and in the purchase of the same incurred a debt of $5 above his capital; he then followed the tanning business until 1853; upon July 4, 1847, he, with his brother, started the first store at Woodington, and continued his merchandise trade with different partners until 1876, when he disposed of his interest and retired from active business. Mr. Mendenhall came to Darke Co. with a capital of $15—he now owns 400 acres of land, with four sets of farm buildings; also the warehouse at Woodington, all of which he has accumulated by his own energies. To him was given the honor of naming the station at Woodington; he was its first merchant and Postmaster, first Justice of the Peace, and Township Trustee one year. He was married in 1839 to Mary Bailey; she was born in Preble Co. in 1820; they were the parents of eight children, of whom four are now living, viz.: Rebecca A., now Mrs. W. H. Ganger; Hannah E., now Mrs. H. T. Martin; Thomas A. and Aleria B.

ISAAC E. MILLER, farmer and Justice of Peace, Sec. 30; P. O. Hetslerville; one of the old settlers of Darke Co., Ohio; was born in Adams Township April 8, 1840; he was a son of John P. Miller, one of the early pioneers of Adams Township, where he lived until his decease, March 4, 1841; he married Elizabeth Martin; she was born July 23, 1819, and is now living in Adams Township, at the advanced age of 60 years; her parents were among the early pioneers of the same township. Isaac E. Miller received his early education in an old log schoolhouse; the writing-desks consisted of boards laid upon pins, inserted in holes bored in logs; their benches were also of a very rude nature; his father died when he was 1 year of age, after which he was raised by his grandfather, and lived with him until he was 21 years of age, when he started in life for himself; he attended select school at Jaysville and Gettysburg, and followed teaching in the winter. Upon the 9th day of October, 1862, he was united in marriage with Sarah J. Sword, born in Miami Co., Ohio, Jan. 26, 1841; they have four children, viz.: Hannah E., born July 22, 1863; John W., born Feb. 11, 1866; Jonathan D., born March 7, 1869; George C., born April 15, 1874; after his marriage, Mr. Miller followed school-teaching in winter, and farming in summer, until April 12, 1864, at which date he came to Brown Township and located upon his present place, which he had purchased the year previous at Sheriff's sale, for which he paid $1,610, and where he has since lived; he now owns 117 acres, with good farm buildings. He is a Democrat in politics, and, while he has not aspired for office, he has held the office of Justice of the Peace twelve years during his residence here, also a Notary Public for six years.

J. J. PETERS, farmer and stock-raiser, Sec. 28; P. O. Ansonia. One of the old settlers; born in Germany March 31, 1836; at 3 years of age, he emigrated with his parents to America and to Ohio; his father, J. J. Peters, Sr., was born in France in 1795, and was a soldier under Napoleon several years; his youngest son now has the gun and sword carried by his father during his service; he was the father of fourteen children, and raised and brought them all to America; he purchased a farm in Ohio, upon which he lived until his death, which occurred Dec. 15, 1878, aged 83 years 8 months and 13 days; his physician's bills during his life amounted to $250; he married, in France, Mary E. McKala; she died upon the
